

Sabine Rosenhammer, Your Ireland Specialist

Revealing hidden gems to German tourists

Setting up her own company was a life-long dream for Sabine Rosenhammer. It's a dream she achieved when she established Your Ireland Specialist in Killarney in 2009.

The company targets the German-speaking market, offering exclusive bespoke tours to holidaymakers and business travellers.

They make all the necessary arrangements from booking flights and accommodation to making reservations at restaurants and organising evening entertainment.

“We take our visitors to hidden gems which allow them to gain unique insights into Irish life and culture that are not experience on package holidays,” says Sabine.

The quality of Sabine's business product was recognised when she won the County Enterprise Award for medium-sized companies in 2011. To find out more about her, visit www.yourirelandspecialist.com or call 087 6625235.
